

Polka Theatre Child Safety Protection Policy and Procedures

Overall Statement

The key guidance for child protection is Working together to safeguard children (Department for Education, 2018). This states:

- everyone who works with children has a responsibility for keeping them safe
- everyone who comes into contact with children and families has a role to play in sharing information and identifying concerns.

As a venue dedicated to children, the safety and protection of children are paramount. Our Board of Trustees and all staff employed by Polka Theatre have a duty of care to children and young people who visit our theatre and attend our activities. We recognise our commitment to safeguard and promote children's welfare and follow a policy of best practice that protects them. This policy applies to all staff, including senior managers and the board of trustees, paid staff, freelancers, volunteers, students and anyone else working on behalf of Polka.

The purpose of this policy is:

- to provide protection for the children and young people who visit our theatre and take part in our activities
- to provide staff and third parties who support our work (whether as actors, directors or otherwise) with a set of principles to adopt to protect children and to provide guidance on procedures they should adopt in the event that they suspect a child or young person may be experiencing, or be at risk of, harm.

Polka recognises that:

- the welfare of the child/young person is paramount, as enshrined in the ChildrenAct1989
- all children and young people, regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religious belief, sex, sexual orientation or identity have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse.
- some children are additionally vulnerable because of the impact of previous experiences, their levels of dependency, communication needs or other issues
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare

We will seek to keep children and young people safe by:

- valuing them, listening to and respecting them
- appointing a designated Child Protection Officer (CPO) for children and young people, a deputy and lead board member for safeguarding
- adopting child protection and safeguarding practices through procedures and a code of conduct for all staff and volunteers
- developing and implementing an effective e-safety policy and related procedures
- providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support, training and quality assurance measures
- safe recruitment of staff and volunteers, ensuring all necessary checks are made recording and storing information professionally and securely, and sharing information about safeguarding and good practice with children, their families, staff and volunteers via posters and discussions

- using our safeguarding procedures to share concerns and relevant information with agencies who need to know, and involving children, young people, parents, families and carers appropriately
- creating and maintaining an anti-bullying environment and ensuring that we have a policy and procedure to help us deal effectively with any bullying that does arise
- ensuring that we have effective complaints and whistleblowing measures in place
- Ensuring that we provide a safe physical environment for our children, young people, staff and volunteers, by applying health and safety measures in accordance with the law and regulatory guidance.

This document has been drawn up with guidance from the NSPCC and is based on the laws that seek to protect children, namely:

- Children Act 1989
- Working Together to Safeguard Children 2015
- United Convention of the Rights of the Child 1991

Sarah King, Chairperson of Trustees at Polka Theatre has overall responsibility for Child Protection at Polka Theatre. The Head of Creative Learning is the designated Child Protection Officer. If you have any concerns or queries about child protection or this policy you should direct them to Polly Simmonds, Head of Creative Learning.

1. Safer Recruitment of Staff and Training

- As appropriate all relevant staff will undergo enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks, specifically where they have regular or sole charge of children, or are in a supervisory role at Polka Theatre. These are renewed every three years.
- All workshop leaders are DBS checked before beginning work at Polka.
- Polka Theatre adopts safer recruitment procedures, including interviewing applicants, investigating an applicant's employment history and taking up of two references prior to appointment.
- All applicants for these posts will be asked to sign a declaration stating that there is no reason why they would be considered unsuitable to work with children and MUST declare all previous convictions (whether spent or not) as well as any cases pending against them. We then follow up with a DBS check. All such information is treated in confidence and will not be used against applicants unfairly.
- At interview for posts relating to workshop delivery or working directly with children, competence based questions pertaining to good practice in Child Protection are asked.
- Referees should be asked specifically about the applicant's suitability to work with children.
- Disclosure and Barring Service checks must be obtained by Polka Theatre for new members of staff as appropriate. The appointment of staff that work with children can only be formally confirmed after this check is received.
- All new staff receive initial training on the issue of child protection as part of their induction to Polka. They also receive a copy of our child protection policy and are required to read it with their line manager and sign a declaration stating their intention to observe the policy.
- All staff are alerted to their individual responsibility to protect children both directly in the context of their duties and to the extent they encounter children whether on a planned or unplanned basis in the context of their duties at Polka.
- Staff working directly with children receive regular child protection training within the organisation and local borough.

2. Role description for designated CPO

Purpose of the role

- To take the lead in ensuring that appropriate arrangements for keeping children and young people safe are in place at Polka.
- To promote the safety and welfare of children and young people involved in Polka's activities at all times.

Duties and responsibilities

- Make sure that all safeguarding issues concerning children and young people who take part in Polka's activities are responded to appropriately through policies, procedures and administrative systems.
- Make sure that everyone working or volunteering with or for children and young people at Polka, understands the procedures and know what to do if they have concerns about a child's welfare.
- Make sure children and young people who are involved in activities at Polka and their parents know who they can talk to if they have a welfare concern and understand what action the organisation will take in response.
- Receive and record information from anyone who has concerns about a child who takes part in Polka's activities.
- Take the lead on responding to information that may constitute a child protection concern. This includes assessing and clarifying the information and making referrals to statutory organisations as appropriate, consulting with and informing the relevant members of the organisation - in line with the organisation's safeguarding policy and procedures.
- Store and retain child protection records according to legal requirements and the organisation's safeguarding policy and procedures.
- Liaise with, pass on information to and receive information from statutory child protection agencies, such as the local authority children's social care department and the police. This includes making formal referrals to these agencies when necessary.
- Consult the NSPCC Helpline when support is needed.
- Report regularly to the management committee on issues relating to safeguarding to ensure that safeguarding is seen as a priority issue for the entire management committee.
- Be familiar with and work within inter-agency child protection procedures developed by the local safeguarding children board.
- Be familiar with issues relating to child protection and abuse, and keep up to-date with new developments in this area.
- Attend regular training in issues relevant to child protection and share knowledge from that training with everyone who works or volunteers with or for children and young people at Polka.
- Attend team meetings, supervision sessions and management meetings as arranged.
- Work flexibly as may be required and carry out any other reasonable duties.

Appointment to this role is subject to satisfactory vetting and barring checks.

3. Responding to disclosures and concerns about a child or young person both off and on site

In the event that a child or young people discloses something to you, or you have cause for concern for their welfare; you must follow Polka's reporting procedure. Treat any allegations extremely seriously and report any concerns to the Child Protection Officer immediately.

Below are 5 steps to follow if a child or young person discloses to you:

1. Listen and Believe
2. Reassure and Record
3. Do Not Confront
4. Explain
5. Report

1. Listen carefully and believe them. Do not express your own views and do not ask questions other than for clarification. Do not promise to keep secrets but make it clear that you believe what they are saying is true. Do not say anything that makes the child feel responsible for the abuse. Do not interrupt the child, ask leading questions, change the subject or interrogate the child. It is the job of the experienced police and social services to investigate the situation.
2. Reassure and record. Tell them they are doing the right thing by telling you and say that you need to take some notes about what they are saying. It is important to use the child's words. If this isn't possible at the time, write down the incident as soon as possible. Be specific in your notes. Generalised language can be the difference between a child receiving ongoing support or not.
3. Do not talk to the alleged or suspected abuser. This could make the situation much worse for the child.
4. Explain what you are going to do next. Tell the child that you must pass this information on to someone who can help. If you feel the child is in immediate danger or at risk of significant harm, keep them with you and inform the Child Protection Officer immediately.
5. Report the disclosure or concern immediately to the Child Protection Officer (Polly Simmonds) or one of the deputies in her absence. Hilary O'Connor, Lynette Shanbury and Courtney Dean are CP deputies. Do not discuss the matter with anyone other than the Child Protection team.

Polka's procedure for reporting a child protection disclosure or concern is simple. If working on site at Polka, please follow the steps below:

Complete a Child Protection Incident Record Form and give it to the Child Protection Officer (Forms can be obtained from Creative Learning Office).

This should be done immediately. If you feel the child is in immediate danger or at risk of significant harm, keep the child with you. If the CPO is absent, inform one of the deputies immediately and hand the completed form to them.

Once you have given the form to the CPO or deputy, it is unlikely you will need to take any further action. The CPO will inform you should they need any further information from you. Do not discuss the matter with anyone other than the CP team and remember they are there to support you.

If working off site (i.e. in a community setting or school), please follow the steps below:

You must speak to the Child Protection Officer (CPO) before you leave the premises. The setting will have their own procedures which you will need to follow; this may include completing a form for them.

If you believe the child is in immediate danger or at risk of significant harm, keep the child with you. Do not leave the premises until you are satisfied that the CPO is responding to the matter.

You must Complete a Child Protection Incident Record Form (Forms can be obtained from Creative Learning Office at Polka or you can email a member of the CP team and ask them to send you an e-version). This must be completed and returned to the CPO at Polka within 24 hours.

If you send the completed form to the CPO via email, you must write the following in the subject "Confidential: CP Concern". Do not use names in the body of the email as this is not secure.

4. Reporting Procedure, Whistleblowing and responsibilities

Information for staff

Report suspicions or disclosures immediately to the Child Protection Officer. If the Child Protection Officer is unavailable please contact the deputies. The Child Protection Officer is aware that it is vitally important that any disclosure made in confidence is recorded factually as soon as possible and that an accurate account should be made of:

- The date and time of what has occurred
- The names of people involved
- What was said or done by whom
- Any action taken to gather information and what steps have been taken to refer the matter to other agencies
- Any further action
- Where relevant, reasons why there is no referral to a statutory agency
- Names of person reporting and to whom reported

Responsibilities

The Child Protection Officer will use appropriate reporting systems for the situation. This may be reporting the matter to the Merton LADO (Local Authority Designated Officer). Report forms can be collected from the Creative Learning department and completed forms are kept in a safe locked place to ensure confidentiality.

If it is thought that returning the child home would put the child in immediate danger, advice will be sought from the LADO or in their absence other appropriate agencies.

If you require any further information or have any complaints or concerns about your child's safety, please contact Polly Simmonds, Head of Creative Learning, Polka Theatre, 240 The Broadway, Wimbledon, SW19 1SB, 020 8545 8326. In Polly's absence, please contact Hilary O' Connor, Head of Operations on 020 8545 8334 or Lynette Shanbury, Executive Director, 020 8545 8323.

What to do if you suspect a member of Polka staff

- Polka staff members are able to share in confidence concerns they may have about another member of staff or a volunteer. Staff members who in good faith report their concerns that a colleague may be or is abusing a child, will be fully supported.
- Any allegations of abuse will be fully recorded and reported appropriately and every effort will be made to maintain confidentiality for all concerned. Appropriate support will be offered to the child, parents and members of staff.
- We will follow guidance provided by ACAS when undertaking staff investigations and suspension.
- Suspension of the member of Staff, against whom an allegation has been made, needs careful consideration, and Polka Theatre will seek the advice from the LADO before deciding on the course of action to be taken.
- Suspension of a staff member does not indicate guilt in their part. It is a step taken to protect children while any investigation is taking place and Polka are seeking to establish the facts of the situation.

5. Storage of personal information both off and on site

- Personal information that is acquired or held in the course of working with children should be treated as confidential. Particular care should be taken with sensitive information.
- Consideration should also be given to the Data Protection Act 1998 which requires that information is obtained and processed fairly and lawfully; that it is accurate, relevant and not held for longer than is necessary; and kept securely.
- Polka Theatre uses the Disclosure and Barring Service to help assess the suitability of applicants for positions of trust, Polka Theatre complies fully with the DBS Code of Practice regarding the correct handling, use, storage, retention and disposal of Disclosures and Disclosure Information. Polka Theatre uses an Umbrella Body to process DBS checks in England.
- Disclosure information will never be kept in an applicant's personnel file and is only passed to those who are authorised to receive it.
- We recognise that it is a criminal offence to pass this information to anyone who is not entitled to receive it.

6. Code of conduct for staff and volunteers

Purpose

This behaviour code outlines the conduct we expect of all our staff and volunteers. This includes agency staff, interns, students on work placement and anyone who is subcontracted to undertake specific duties. The behaviour code aims to help us protect children and young people from abuse and reduce the possibility of unfounded allegations being made.

The role of staff and volunteers

When working with or for children and young people, you are acting in a position of trust. You are likely to be seen as a role model and must act appropriately.

Responsibility

You are responsible for:

- prioritising the welfare of children and young people
- providing a safe environment for children and young people. This includes:
 - a) ensuring equipment is used safely and for its intended purpose
 - b) having good awareness of issues to do with safeguarding and child protection and taking action when appropriate
- following our principles, policies and procedures
 - a) This includes policies and procedures for child protection/safeguarding, whistleblowing and e-safety
- staying within the law at all times
- modelling good behaviour for children and young people to follow
- challenging all unacceptable behaviour and reporting any breaches of the behaviour code to the CPO.
- reporting all allegations/suspensions of abuse following our reporting procedures. This includes abusive behaviour being displayed by an adult or child and directed at anybody of any age.

Rights

You should:

- treat children and young people fairly and without prejudice or discrimination
- understand that children and young people are individuals with individual needs
- respect differences in gender, sexual orientation, culture, race, ethnicity, disability and religious belief systems between yourself and others, and appreciate that all participants bring something valuable and different to the group/organisation
- challenge discrimination and prejudice
- encourage young people and adults to speak out about attitudes or behaviour that makes them uncomfortable.

Relationships

You should:

- promote relationships that are based on openness, honesty, trust and respect
- avoid favouritism
- be patient with others
- use special caution when you are discussing sensitive issues with children or young people
- ensure your contact with children and young people is appropriate and relevant to the work of the project you are involved in
- ensure there is always more than one adult present during activities with children and young people

- a) if this isn't possible, ensure that you are within sight or hearing of other adults
- only provide personal care in an emergency and make sure there is more than one adult present if possible.

Respect

You should:

- listen to and respect children at all times
- value and take children's contributions seriously, actively involving them in planning activities wherever possible
- respect a young person's right to personal privacy as far as possible
 - a) in some cases it may be necessary to break confidentiality in order to follow child protection procedures; if this is the case it is important to explain this to the child or young person at the earliest opportunity.

Unacceptable behaviour

When working with children and young people, you must not:

- allow concerns or allegations to go unreported
- take unnecessary risks
- smoke, consume alcohol or use illegal substances
- develop inappropriate relationships with children and young people
- make inappropriate promises to children and young people
- engage in behaviour that is in any way abusive
 - a) this includes having any form of sexual contact with a child or young person
- let children and young people have your personal contact details (mobile number, email or address) or have contact with them via a personal social media account
- act in a way that can be perceived as threatening or intrusive
- patronise or belittle children and young people
- make sarcastic, insensitive, derogatory or sexually suggestive comments or gestures to or in front of children and young people.

Upholding this code of behaviour

You should always follow this code of behaviour and never rely on your reputation or that of our organisation to protect you. If you have behaved inappropriately you will be subject to our disciplinary procedures. Depending on the seriousness of the situation, you may be asked to leave Polka We may also make a referral to statutory agencies such as the police and/or the local authority children's social care department.

If you become aware of any breaches of this code, you must report them to Polly Simmonds (CPO/ Head of Creative Learning). To do this you should follow the whistle-blowing procedure or, if necessary, the child protection/safeguarding procedures.

7. E-Safety

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to protect children and young people who engage with Polka and participate in our activities, and who make use of information technology such as mobile phones, games consoles and the internet, as part of their involvement with us. It is also to provide staff and volunteers with the overarching principles that guide our approach to e-safety and to ensure that as an organisation we operate in line with our values and within the law in terms of how we use information technology and behave online.

We will seek to keep children and young people safe by:

- encouraging children and young people attending Polka activities to use the opportunities offered by the internet and social media in a way that keeps themselves safe and shows respect for others
- incorporating statements about safe and appropriate ICT use and online behaviour into the codes of conduct for both staff and volunteers and for children and young people
- use our procedures to deal firmly, fairly and decisively with any examples of inappropriate ICT use or behaviour, complaints or allegations, whether by an adult or a child/young person (these may include breaches of filtering, illegal use, downloading or creating indecent images of children, cyberbullying, or use of ICT to groom a child or to perpetrate abuse)
- informing parents and carers of incidents of concern as appropriate
- reviewing and updating the security of our information systems regularly
- providing adequate physical security for ICT equipment
- ensuring that user names, logins and passwords are used effectively
- using only official email accounts provided via Polka and monitoring these as necessary
- ensuring that the personal information of staff, volunteers and participant's (including participant names) are not published on our website
- ensuring that images of children, young people and families are used only after their appropriate permission has been obtained, and only for the purpose for which consent has been given
- ensuring that any instance of cyberbullying is recorded and reported in line with Polka's Anti-bullying policy

8. Photographic permission and social media

- Staff (including workshop leaders and assistants) must not take photos of participants/children and young people on personal devices including phones and cameras. Polka employs photographers and occasionally staff will use department camera equipment; content will be stored safely and securely at Polka and images/footage will only be captured of children who have provided consent.
- Staff (including workshop leaders and assistants) must not use images of children and young people participating in Polka activities, for personal use or promotion i.e. on social media.
- Staff must not interact with children or young people outside of Polka activities, including via social media. This includes being “followed by” or “friends with” children and young people on social media platforms.
- Staff must not exchange personal phone numbers or email addresses with children and young people. All communication should be between parent/carer and the relevant staff member at Polka i.e. Box Office or Creative Learning, and will go through the appropriate channels which are Polka telephone and email accounts.
- Audience members and parents/carers attending ‘sharings’ of children’s work are only permitted to take photographs or videos of performances if permissions are obtained for all children participating, and parents are asked not to share these via any social media platform. If a photographer has been employed by Polka or a member of Polka staff is taking photos using the department camera, Creative Learning Staff are able to share images with parents/carers if written permission has been obtained for all children.
- In the event that the public areas of Polka are being photographed or video recorded, staff should fully endeavour to ensure that all subjects of photos/filming are made appropriately aware that this is taking place – methods include written consent, signage, verbal consent, announcements made. As a venue dedicated to children, Polka recognises the importance of true fully-informed consent and understands that we may encounter vulnerable children such as Looked-After Children whose whereabouts needs to be protected.
- For Creative Learning events, where participants are likely to be participating without the attendance of carer, parent or school supervisor, the photo permission form created by Head of Creative Learning has been agreed by the Executive Team and should be completed by parents/carers of all children and young people who may appear in images/footage. If it is not possible to obtain written consent for all children or consent is refused, these children must not feature in any images.
- Polka social media channels are managed by our Marketing Department who will operate in-line with our social media policy.

9. Anti-bullying policy

Polka Theatre acknowledges that bullying behaviour is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. We endeavour to ensure that a secure environment is provided for every child and young person who participates in our activities. Polka acknowledges that bullying can take place and may need to be addressed amongst any combination of persons regardless of their role.

Definition

The Anti Bullying Alliance defines bullying as the repetitive, intentional hurting of one person or group by another person or group, where the relationship involves an imbalance of power. Bullying can be physical, verbal or psychological. It can happen face-to-face or through cyberspace.

Bullying can be:

- Emotional - being deliberately unfriendly, excluding, tormenting (e.g. hiding possessions, using threatening gestures).
- Physical - pushing, hitting, kicking or any use of violence.
- Racist - racial taunts, graffiti, gestures
- Sexual - unwanted physical contact or sexually abusive comments
- Disability related – ridiculing a child because of their disability
- Homophobic - because of, or focusing on the issue of sexuality
- Religious - because of or focusing on the issue of faith
- Verbal - name-calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours, shouting or swearing
- Cyber - all areas of internet, such as e-mail and internet chat room, social media platform misuse mobile phone threats by text messaging and calls misuse of associated technology, i.e. camera and video facilities

Implementation

It is the responsibility of Polka's Board of Trustees, employees and workshop staff to ensure the implementation of the Anti-Bullying Policy to minimise occurrences of bullying. Workshop practitioners are mindful and aware of the need to guard against any unwanted behaviour in the sessions and should also encourage participants to report any instances of bullying. Workshop practitioners who are concerned about behaviour should alert the designated Child Protection Policy Officer. The seriousness of the situation will be determined and might include a discussion with individuals, or the involvement of parents. Where bullying has been established, a written record will be made and appropriate action taken.

Polka will provide appropriate awareness raising and training to all relevant staff to reinforce this policy and to provide skills and techniques to counter bullying behaviour.

Procedures

- Workshop leaders are mindful and aware of behaviour in the sessions and report any unwanted behaviour to both the Participation Officer if on site, the Schools Relationship Officer (or setting DSL) if working offsite and the CPO.
- Children are encouraged to report bullying behaviour (both against them and against others). Staff told about bullying by a child should alert the CPO.
- Incidents will be recorded by workshop practitioners and the CPO.
- In serious cases, parents will be informed and will be invited to meet to discuss the problem.
- In extreme cases, if necessary and appropriate, including in relation to 'cyber-bullying', police will be consulted
- The bullying behaviour or threats of bullying must be investigated and the bullying stopped quickly

- An attempt will be made to help the bully (bullies) change their behaviour and the bully (bullies) may be asked to genuinely apologise and other consequences may take place.
- In serious cases, the bully will be asked to leave.
- If possible, the participants will be reconciled
- After the incident(s) have been investigated and dealt with, each case will be monitored in striving to ensure repeated bullying does not take place

Record keeping and Monitoring

- It is important that a record is kept.
- All incidents should, ideally, be written up within 24 hours.
- Reports should be signed by the workshop practitioner, Participation Officer or Schools Relationship Officer (or setting DSL) if working offsite and CPO.
- The CPO will take responsibility for the safe storage and processing of this information.
- All information gathered should be treated with strict confidentiality

Evaluation

Records of incidents are kept and used to inform future practice. Evaluation and review will ensure that Polka Theatre remains responsible to changing needs whilst striving to protect young people from bullying.

10. General visits to Polka Theatre

- Polka Theatre is a public space. All Polka staff are aware of the need to protect children who visit Polka. Relevant Polka staff are trained to deal with children in emergencies and will be present when children are on the premises. The presence of Polka staff does not replace the need for parents or carers to supervise the children in their care while on Polka premises.
- Parents and guardians must stay with their children at all times, including in the adventure theatre, main theatre, playground, garden and café.
- With the exception of participatory workshops, unaccompanied children under 12 will not be admitted to the theatre.
- All Polka staff wear a name badge and are easily identifiable. Front of House and Creative Learning Practitioners wear branded Polka t-shirts and are specifically alerted to the need to be friendly and approachable to children visiting Polka. Lost children should contact an easily identifiable member of staff.
- If a child is thought to be lost, Polka staff will approach the child and look for the nearby parent/guardian. Lost children will be accompanied to the box office where an announcement will be made. If a person is thought to be behaving suspiciously our incident reporting policy will be implemented.
- Polka Theatre has full Public Liability Insurance.
- Risk assessment of our premises and activities is carried out on a regular basis and action plans put in place to address specifically identified hazards and the means of eliminating or minimising them.

Accidents and illness

In the event of a child suffering an accident during a visit to Polka:

A member of staff trained in first aid will be on the premises during all public events. They will establish what further action needs to be taken and will put those measures in place.

- First Aid Kits are located around the building as detailed in our Health and Safety Policy.
- In most cases, injuries sustained can easily be treated by the first aider. If this is not the case the first aider will promptly contact the emergency services and the responsible parent/guardian and will ensure that the child is comforted until further help arrives. The first aider will stay with the family if possible.
- Details of all accidents are entered in an accident book, kept in the Front of House office. The accident book is reviewed quarterly by our Safety Team.
- Polka Theatre staff cannot administer any form of medication, including paracetamol or aspirin.

11. Polka Theatre Take Part Participatory Workshops

Parents can leave their child in a Polka Theatre session knowing that their safety is our priority.

The National Standards

- Polka Theatre workshop sessions comply with Ofsted's 14 National Standards for Out of School Care.
- Polka staff are aware of the company Health and Safety policy and equipment is checked regularly.

Ratio of Adults to Children

- Adults work on the Polka workshops for children aged 3 – 8, a leader, and two assistants. This is a minimum ratio of 1:7; the national guideline is 1:8.
- A minimum of 2 adults work on the Polka workshops for children aged 9+, a leader and a deputy. This is a minimum ratio of 1:10; the national guideline is 1:10.
- There are usually other members of staff on hand to help in an emergency.
- Children are always escorted by an adult when they need to leave the workshop room.
- Polka always ensures that written consent is given from parents/ carers if children or young people are taken off site.
- Offsite workshops may differ slightly as there will be setting/school staff present. If delivering at a school as part of the school day, there will be one Polka practitioner delivering the session as both the classroom teacher and teaching assistant will be there. For After School Clubs, there will be two Polka practitioners as members of school staff will also be on site. This includes school office staff members.

Codes of behaviour

- Parents/ carers will always be informed if staff have had to do things of a personal nature for a child such as changing clothing. Staff are alerted to the need to treat children with dignity and not to ask them to do anything which might embarrass them or be contrary to their cultural or religious precepts.
- Workshop Staff are always informed of any changes regarding child protection laws or best practise by the Head of Creative Learning.
- Workshop staff understand that the language and tone they adopt are important factors in a child's sense of safety and reassurance. They are trained to consider the impact of the language used by others may have on children and of the need to take steps to avoid a situation where language could be used to unsettle or intimidate children.
- Workshop staff and all those responsible for devising events are trained to consider the safety of the event they are responsible for, the appropriateness of the equipment to be used given the age and ability of the children expected to attend the performance and of the need to take steps to eliminate any activity or equipment that could endanger the children attending the event.
- During workshops, we encourage independent learning and adults should have minimal physical contact with children. In drama it is sometimes necessary to have some physical contact when demonstrating exercises or joining in activities to encourage others but staff should be mindful of what/how much contact is appropriate. Where possible staff should demonstrate physical exercises with other workshop staff. Polka staff adhere to the NSPCC's Safe Touch guidelines. See appendix 5.

- Polka staff should discourage children from leaning, lying or sitting on them and other clingy behaviour. Children may need to be reassured, encouraged to engage with the session and asked not to hold onto/lean onto adults. Adults will take themselves away from a child who repeatedly tries to sit/lean on them. Positive behaviour of other children will be rewarded to set an example of how we want children to behave with the adults in the room.
- All Polka staff are instructed not to touch children at any time unless the child is at risk of hurting themselves or another person or in a medical emergency.

Medical issues, Emergencies and emergency contact details

- Parents/Carers complete emergency contact forms at point of booking their child onto a Polka workshop, no matter how short the session.
- Children will not be allowed to take part in the workshop if parents or guardians have not sent back the emergency contact form.
- The Participation Officer will contact parents/guardians who have not returned their form, one week prior to the workshop/course, to remind them.
- Parents /guardians must fill in a new form for each class, or check and sign an old form in the case of Take Part courses, as there may be changes that we are not aware of.
- We ask that parents/ guardians complete forms (not nannies or other carers) to ensure that all information is correct.
- Parents/guardians are asked to alert Polka staff before a visit if their child has any specific needs associated with their health or has a disability which will require Polka to make a reasonable adjustment in order to enable them to attend a Polka event. In such a circumstance the parent or guardian need to let the Participation Officer know. If any child has an allergy which may be affected by their visit they must let Polka know before attendance and ensure the carer or parent has any appropriate medicine that they can administer or knows what steps to take to ensure the safety of the child should the need arise.
- Registration for a workshop takes place in the foyer of Polka Theatre at the start of every workshop or term of workshops.
- If a participant arrives late to a workshop they should notify the Front of House staff at the Polka shop (in the foyer), who will have been notified about the latecomers arrival.

If an accident or illness occurs during a Polka workshop

- The workshop leader or assistant will assess the situation and remove the child from the activity.
- Where appropriate the assistant will contact a first aider. The first aider will take action to administer first aid or contact the emergency services or arrange for the child to return home, depending on what is necessary. If a child does not need the emergency services, but the child continues to feel ill the assistant will contact the parent/guardian and request that the child is taken home.
- If a child needs to take medication or may need staff to administer medication the parent must discuss this with staff prior to the workshop. Polka staff will not be responsible for personal care unless specifically agreed in advance.

Breaks

- Toilet breaks: children are taken to the toilet if they need to go. The assistant will escort children to the toilet and wait outside.
- We advise that younger children are taken to the toilet before the workshop session.
- Refreshment breaks: During an hour-long workshop a break will not automatically be given. If a child informs the staff that they are thirsty or need the toilet their need will be met.
- During a workshop of more than one hour regular toilet and refreshment breaks are provided.
- Lunches: During all-day workshops we request that children bring a packed lunch. This information is printed in all our literature for the event. Should a child arrive without a packed lunch the workshop staff will ensure that food is purchased for the child and the bill will be settled with the parent/carer after the workshop. Children are not permitted to leave the premises during lunch breaks and will be appropriately supervised.

Departure from the workshop

- Parents/carers must come to a designated area to pick up their children – the arrangements for collection will be made clear by the workshop assistant at the time of registration. They must inform the workshop leader that they have picked up their child and wait until their child has been signed out before leaving the premises. The emergency contact form has a space for the names of two people who the parent/carer will allow to pick up their child in their absence – if arrangements have been made for one of these two appointed adults to collect the child the workshop assistant must be notified at the time of registration.
- Workshop leaders are contracted to stay until all children are picked up by one of the registered carers, we expect parents to be on time or notify us beforehand if they are going to be late.
- Children will not be allowed off the premises to be picked up.

Appendix 1

Definitions and types of abuse:

1. Physical abuse

Physical abuse may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child.

Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer feigns the symptoms of, or deliberately causes ill health to, a child whom they are looking after. A person might do this because they enjoy or need the attention they get through having a sick child.

Physical abuse, as well as being a result of an act of commission can also be caused through the failure to act to protect.

Possible signs of abuse: Look for clusters of these signs:

- Unexplained burns, broken bones, bite marks, cuts, bruises, or welts in the shape of an object.
- Resistance to going home.
- Fear of adults.

Consider the possibility of physical abuse when the parent or other adult caregiver:

- Offers conflicting, unconvincing, or no explanation for the child's injury.
- Describes the child as "evil," or in some other very negative way.
- Uses harsh physical discipline with the child.
- Has a history of abuse as a child.
- Speaks to the child in an intimidating manner

2. Emotional abuse

Emotional abuse is the persistent emotional ill treatment of a child such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve making a child feel or believe that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate or valued only in so far as they meet the needs of another person.

Possible signs of abuse:

- Apathy, depression.
- Hostility
- Difficulty concentrating

- Overly compliant or demanding behaviour, extreme passivity, or aggression.
- Extremes in behaviour, such as being either inappropriately adult (parenting other children, for example) or inappropriately infantile (frequently rocking or head-banging, for example).
- Delayed in physical or emotional development.
- Has attempted suicide.
- Reports a lack of attachment to the parent.

Consider the possibility of emotional abuse when the parent or other adult caregiver: Constantly blames, belittles, or berates the child.

- Is unconcerned about the child and refuses to consider offers of help for the child's problems.
- Overtly rejects the child.

3. Sexual abuse

Sexual abuse involves forcing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, whether or not the child is aware of, or consents to, what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including penetrative acts such as rape, buggery or oral sex or non- penetrative acts such as fondling. Sexual abuse may include non- contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of pornographic material or watching sexual activities, or encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways. Boys and girls can be sexually abused by males and/or females, by adults and by other young people. This includes people from all walks of life.

Possible signs of abuse:

- Inappropriate interest in or knowledge of sexual acts.
- Seductiveness.
- Avoidance of things related to sexuality, or rejection of own genitals or body.
- Either over compliance or excessive aggression.
- Fear of a particular person or family member.
- Difficulty walking or sitting.
- Suddenly refuses to participate in physical activities.

Consider the possibility of sexual abuse when the parent or other adult caregiver:

- Is unduly protective of the child or severely limits the child's contact with other children, especially of the opposite sex.
- Is secretive and isolated.
- Is jealous or controlling with family members.

4. Neglect

Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health and development. It may involve a parent or carer failing to provide adequate food, shelter or clothing, failing to protect a child from physical harm or danger, or the failure to ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment. It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.

Possible signs of abuse:

- Clothing unsuited to the weather.
- Child dirty or unbathed.
- Extreme hunger.
- Apparent lack of supervision.
- Has not received help for physical or medical problems brought to the parents' attention.
- Has learning problems (or difficulty concentrating) that cannot be attributed to specific physical or psychological causes.
- Is always watchful, as though preparing for something bad to happen.
- Lacks adult supervision.
- Is overly compliant, passive, or withdrawn.
- Comes to activities early, stays late, and does not want to go home.
- Is frequently absent from school.
- Begs or steals food or money.
- Lacks needed medical or dental care, immunizations, or glasses.
- States that there is no one at home to provide care.

Consider the possibility of neglect when the parent or other adult caregiver:

- and child rarely touch or look at each other.
- Shows little concern for the child.
- Denies the existence of—or blames the child for—the child's problems in school or at home.
- Asks teachers or other caretakers to use harsh physical discipline if the child misbehaves.
- Sees the child as entirely bad, worthless, or burdensome.
- Demands a level of physical or academic performance the child cannot achieve.
- Looks primarily to the child for care, attention, and satisfaction of emotional needs.

Safe Touch Guidelines

Safe Touch needs to be:

- Necessary: are you sure that demonstration or verbal instruction is not adequate?
- Permitted: permission for contact sought and given by child or young person. Ask if you can touch and accept that permission may be refused
- Clear: tell the child or young person where you are going to touch and how you will touch
- Contextual: explain why you are going to touch
- Always check that your reason for using touch is understood and has been effective way of learning for the participant
